Honoring RossWoods' Veterans

RossWoods' Veterans are an example of patriotism to the rest of us, and we are grateful for their service. We honor our Veterans every day with the scrapbook in which all of their stories are collected and often discussed. However, on Veterans Day, we were able to honor our Veterans in a special way.

The Honor Guard from the American Legion, Post 112, came to RossWoods and presented the colors and held a musical program that was enjoyed by all. We thank the American Legion for the ceremony, the music, and the time they spent mingling with our Veterans. Afterwards, our Veterans were presented with a picture of themselves in handcrafted picture frames.

RossWoods' Participants Win Big at the Fair!

RossWoods participants stole the show at the North Georgia Fair! Paula and the crafters saved artwork for months in anticipation of the fair. When the time finally rolled around for the fair, the most difficult part of the job was choosing which pieces to send. From puzzle piece sculptures to beautiful paintings, from collages to decorative vases and wreaths, our entries were spectacular! RossWoods entries filled an entire section of the arts and crafts display, and many other crafters stopped to admire our work as they were being displayed. The talent of our participants was apparent when we came home with an amazing collection of prize ribbons.

THE PHOTO SHOP

Northwest High School Chorus presented an awesome Christmas musical!

Participants enjoy making Christmas crafts with the CNA students from the Calhoun CNA school.

Participants stayed busy with Christmas baking.

Sondra and Merrilyl had fun decorating for Christmas.

Debbie had a good time making Christmas cookies.
